Bonanza or should it be bonanzas???

Birmingham - Saturday 16 July

Ayush Rodriguez, Kyle Bonnage and Marc Baldwin represented the Junior club in a national Bonanza which took place on Saturday 16 July at the National Indoors Arena. Ben Ithier and Graham Ross represented our adults teams. Although the boys lost most of their matches, it allowed them to measure their ability against other players who came from far and wide. Ben and Graham fared a little better managing to win some of their matches.

Stoke Mandeville - 01 October

The winners of the mixed doubles competition with Carol

This was the third bonanza organised by Phoenix at the Stoke Mandeville Stadium. We had many entries from far and wide and it was by far the best bonanza so far. Phoenix did also really well winning the ladies doubles', the mixed doubles, the men's doubles and the wheelchair singles categories. Well done to you all and thank you to Eddie, Brian and Derek as well as all the helpers for organising such a good competition. So the question is will there be another bonanza next year???

You bet!

THANK YOU PHOENIX FROM THE GATEWAY CLUB

After our successful fund raising event in May (24 hour marathon), we have received a letter of thanks from the secretary of The Gateway

Club which has been scanned above. Well done, everyone!

Dear Carol

On behalf of the members, volunteers and committee I would like to thank you and The Phoenix-Badminton Club for the £315 cheque that was presented to the Aylesbury Gateway Club last night.

As you know we rely on donations to ensure that the members can enjoy a variety of entertainment throughout the year, your generous gift will support the club to carry this out.

Please pass on our thanks to all those who were involved in the Badminton 24hr Marathon and for choosing to donate to The Gateway Club.

Yours sincerely

Sylvia P E McLoughlin
Secretary, Aylesbury Gateway Club
